

Rugs and Carpets / Friday, 19th July 2019 / Lot 2901

LOT 2901

A Tabriz carpet, Central Persia, early 20th century, the blue field with a large shaped medallion, supported by angular vines, leaves and palmettes, within a shaded terracotta complimentary border, 366cm x 260cm.

Estimate: £150 - £250

---

Condition Report

2901. An overall slight surface wear but generally a fairly good pile throughout. One corner has a few small patches of moth damage. The fringe ends are a little tatty and of un-even length. The sides have some areas of fraying. There is quite a prominent abrash to one end.

Created: Mon, 15th July 2019 15:47