

Glassware / Thursday, 18th July 2019 / Lot 1612

LOT 1612

A bonnet or monteith glass, circa 1800, the funnel bowl with notched rim and ribs alternating with stars, raised on a lemon-squeezer base, height 9.2cm, together with a glass salt with turnover rim, a cut wine glass, a set of four cordial glasses and another similar.

Estimate: £40 - £60

---

Condition Report

1612. Bonnet glass has a couple of small chips to the bowl's rim, a couple of larger chips to corners and underside of base. One cordial glass with flat chip to underside of foot rim. All others in good condition, with typical wear.

Created: Tue, 16th July 2019 14:44