

Jewellery / Wed, 14th August 2019 / Lot 655

LOT 655

A Scottish silver, vari-coloured granite and mauve paste brooch, circa 1900, designed as a spray of thistles enclosed by a garter, detailed to the back 'J.I. Gordon', width 5.2cm.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

655. The mauve paste thistle terminals to the sides have been re-glued into position, all three may be replacements for what were originally amethysts. The surrounding oval agates look a bit crude. The central leaf looks to have been replaced upside down. Weight 28g.

Created: Thu, 8th August 2019 14:26