LOT 1110

A Chinese famille verte enameled porcelain double-gourd shaped vase, Kangxi period, the upper bulb painted with butterflies and flowers, the globular body painted with opposing red lined panels, one filled with a butterfly, fence and blossoming prunus branch, the reverse with precious objects, height 26cm.

Estimate: £1,000 - £1,500

Condition Report

1110. Good condition with no significant damage or repairs. Small glaze flake/chip to rim but otherwise no cracks or restoration.

Typical light wear/rubbing to enamels and minor discolouration/staining to glaze on underside of foot.

Please note the vase has tilted slightly in the kiln so does not stand exactly straight.
