

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 15th August 2019 / Lot 1459

LOT 1459

A Wedgwood part tea service, late 19th/early 20th century, comprising eleven teacups and saucers, milk jug, sugar bowl, twelve side plates, four square sandwich plates and muffin dish and cover, with gilt foliate decoration against a powdered turquoise ground, printed marks including retailer's 'T. Goode & Co' to bases, together with a set of six Royal Worcester coffee cans and saucers, black printed with exotic birds, and three Masons 'Oak' pattern goblets.

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

1459. One tea plate has a minor nick to the underside rim edge, otherwise the service is in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or repairs. The gilding is not work and there are a few very minor surface scratches, particularly to the side plates, but otherwise no significant or noticeable wear to the powdered turquoise ground.

Created: Mon, 12th August 2019 12:30