

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 15th August 2019 / Lot 1435

LOT 1435

A collection of Copeland 'Spode's Italian' pattern blue printed tablewares, including five graduated platters, a coffee pot and cover, various bowls, plates, cups and saucers.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

1435. Fundamentally the service is in good order, it is matched with a variety of black and blue backstamps. There is some crazing throughout but this is on a limited number of pieces. The platters in particular display knife cuts and surface scratches. The objects listed below are those with issues over and above the general good condition:

Two tea plates - heavily crazed and stained.

Small coffee pot - small chip to spout.

Large coffee pot - small restored chip to spout, stained and crazed.

Octagonal jug - restoration to spout and footrim.

White rimmed footed fluted circular bowl - cracked.

Circular serving bowl - crazed with small area of staining.

Medium sized jug - repaired handle and cracked.

Preserve jar - minor chip and staining to cover.

Fluted small bowl and cover - stained and crazed with small chip to underside of cover.

Baluster vase - minor chip to footrim and top rim.

1 large teacup - minor chip to rim.

1 small teacup - flaw to rim.

Small square dish - heavily crazed and stained.

Two white edged dinner plates - each with indistinct nick to rim.

One square plate - tiny nick to rim.

Small oval platter - restored.

Small oval platter with white rim - faint hairline.

Circular serving bowl - flawed.

Two handled Copeland & Garrett serving & Garrett serving bowl - lacking cover, stained, crazed and with starcrack.

Small matched pearlware tea plate - starcrack.