

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thursday, 15th August 2019 / Lot 1284

LOT 1284

A Chinese sang-de-boeuf glazed bottle vase, 20th century, the globular body with narrow cylindrical neck, height 34cm, together with a Chinese green glazed vase, height 33.5cm (converted to a table lamp), a Republic style vase, decorated with peacocks and flowers, height 36cm, and a blue and white cylindrical vase, late 19th century, painted with figures, height 30cm (repaired).

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

1284. Sang-de-boeuf vase - typical light crazing to glaze and typical chipping/cut off glaze around footrim.

Otherwise good condition with no significant damage or repair.

Green crackle glazed vase - appears to be in good condition has a drilled hole through base where converted to a table lamp.

Famille rose vase - good condition, no chips, cracks or repairs.

Blue and white vase - badly damaged upper section of vase which has been repaired.

Created: Tue, 13th August 2019 15:01