

Art Pottery / Fri, 13th September 2019 / Lot 4138

LOT 4138

A Burmantofts Faience art pottery jardinière, 1890s, the turquoise glazed bulbous body relief moulded with three lobed panels of chrysanthemums against a stylized foliate ground, impressed marks to base, height 25cm (minor faults).

Estimate: £100 - £150

---

Condition Report

4138. Typical overall fine crazing to glaze. Uneven chip to exterior edge of footrim, approx 4cm long, with small glaze flake to footrim alongside. Indistinct starcrack visible to exterior edge of one lobed panel on close inspection. Small glaze blemish/losses overall, generally only really noticeable on closer inspection, apart from a few on highest points.

Created: Mon, 2nd September 2019 16:35