LOT 539

A Victorian gold, seed pearl set and black enamelled oval mourning brooch, the front mounted with a seed pearl set spray of lilies-of-the-valley on a black enamelled ground within an engraved border, the back glazed with a locket compartment, width 3.6cm, fitted with a safety chain, with a later case.

Estimate: £200 - £250

Condition Report

539. The roller hook to the clasp is a later replacement. There is a chip to the glass at the back of the locket. The enamel has one or two very minor surface marks which are hardly noticeable. One half-pearl is chipped and damaged and some of the other half-pearls are a little grey. Otherwise the brooch is in generally good condition. Weight 19.2g.
