A 9ct gold, opal and seed pearl pendant in a scrolling design, length 2.8cm.

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

612. The opal has an attractive play of colour, however it is chipped at 6 o'clock. There is evidence around the opal setting that it has been remounted in the past. The seed pearls are of silvery grey colour. The pendant is hollow and has a few dents to the edge. There are two small holes to the back which are part of the manufacturing process. The pendant is very dirty and would benefit from professional cleaning. Birmingham hallmark but the date letter is not decipherable. Suggested age - Edwardian period. Weight 1.8g.
