LOT 2605

A 19th century Blue John and gilt bronze mounted ornamental urn, the pineapple and stiff leaf finial above an ovoid body with applied lion mask mounts, the flared stem raised on a cylindrical pedestal and black slate base, height 30.5cm.

Estimate: £3,000 - £4,000

Condition Report

2605. One of the lion mask mounts has been re-mounted off-line and has some slight glue residue on the edge. There are overall small nicks and bruises to the edges of the urn and some small chips to the blue john just below the finial cap and on the edges of the plinth. Otherwise some overall minor surface wear. Also a tiny nick to the corner of the slate base.
