Condition Report

7. Tear to folds of robe near feet and another below elbow repaired with a patch, filling and overpainting. These patches have buckled the canvas slightly which is quite loose on the stretcher. UV examination highlights some other touches of overpainting. Paint a little thin in places, but generally ok. Considerable surface dirt, including splatters of emulsion to right-hand side and a dull, uneven and discoloured varnish. One very small area of paint flaking to the sky. Frame a little soiled, scuffed and scratched.
