

Art Pottery / Fri, 13th September 2019 / Lot 4155

LOT 4155

A Martin Brothers stoneware inkwell, late 19th/early 20th century, of tapering square form, each side incised with a floral and dragonfly/wasp design in shades of blue, with fitted liner, incised mark to base 'Martin London', height 5.8cm.

Estimate: £150 - £250

Condition Report

4155. Two opposing base corners of well professionally restored, incredibly well executed and only noticeable by an expert eye on close inspection. The mark is not affected. Otherwise in good condition with no chips, cracks or repairs.

Created: Fri, 6th September 2019 08:53