

Wristwatches and Pocket Watches / Thu, 12th September 2019 / Lot 1005

LOT 1005

An Election gold cased and enamelled keyless wind open-faced dress watch with a signed jewelled movement, the signed silvered dial with gilt Arabic numerals and subsidiary seconds, the case back enamelled with a standing Springer Spaniel with a fallen pheasant in a landscape scene, detailed within the case back '18c', case diameter 5.5cm, with a dress Albert chain, fitted with two boltrings, swivel, damaged swivel and a devotional charm, length 50cm, with a case.

Estimate: £600 - £800

Condition Report

1005. Case in generally good condition, no obvious dents. Typical light surface scratches to enamel and sides. Dial has some discolouration/staining to the gilt numerals particularly from 3 o'clock to 10 o'clock and some dirty patches around edge. The watch does not wind or run but adjusts smoothly. Gross weight 53.9g. Chain only 13.5g.

Created: Wed, 11th September 2019 09:58