

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 12th September 2019 / Lot 1484

LOT 1484

Four English pottery lustre jugs, circa 1810-20, comprising a pineapple moulded example with overall silver lustre colouring, height 14.5cm, a relief moulded jug with equestrian huntsmen and hounds and pink lustre detail, height 16cm, a similar jug, relief moulded with huntsmen beneath a fruiting vine rim heightened with pink lustre, height 19cm, and a black printed and pink lustre detailed jug with farming implements and chickens, height 14cm (minor faults).

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

1484. Silver pineapple jug - minor chip to exterior base edge of footrim approx 1cm long by 0.5cm wide, otherwise typical rubbing to extremities but in good condition overall.

Farming Implements - typical crazing to glaze. Minor and indistinct unsprung chip to footrim beneath spout. Minor and indistinct glaze rubbing to spout and 2.5cm long faint vertical haircrack to side of spout. Minor typical surface scratches overall.

Larger hunting jug - 0.8cm by 0.5cm flat chip to exterior top rim edge behind handle, otherwise in good condition overall with very minor surface wear.

Smaller hunting jug - typical crazing to glaze. Faint 3cm long vertical haircrack either side of spout. 2cm long by 1cm wide chip to exterior rim edge on one side of jug. Surface wear to raised detail.

Created: Sat, 7th September 2019 09:23