LOT 2106

An early 18th century oak side table, the frieze fitted with a drawer, raised on barley twist legs united by an 'X' frame stretcher, height 66cm, width 76cm, depth 46cm (some alterations).

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

2106. The table has had typical ongoing repairs throughout its life. The handle is a replacement and one drawer runner is later. Repair to stretcher and some later attachment pegs put through top, but otherwise quite original.
