

Glassware / Thu, 12th September 2019 / Lot 1602

LOT 1602

An enamelled Continental glass vase, in the manner of Fritz Heckert, early 20th century, the cylindrical clear body enamelled with Art Nouveau iris flowers against a yellow ground to the rim, a large flower and two buds on trailing stems to the main body, unmarked, height 20cm.

Estimate: £40 - £60

Condition Report

1602. In good condition, no chips, cracks or repairs. Gilt rim rubbed.

Created: Tue, 10th September 2019 16:21