

Art Pottery / Fri, 13th September 2019 / Lot 4180

LOT 4180

A matched pair of Continental art pottery vases, circa 1900, the bulbous bodies with gently flared cylindrical necks, painted with Art Nouveau style yellow and brown flowerheads on trailing green stems against a shaded green to yellow ground, unmarked, heights 32cm and 31cm.

Estimate: £150 - £250

---

Condition Report

4180. One has some slightly discoloured crazing around the underside area of the rim, an overall light crazing and a few slight flakes of paint off the surface of the decoration.

The other seems to be in good condition with some minor surface scratches and a few areas of very minor glaze spots.

Created: Thu, 12th September 2019 10:26