

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 10th October 2019 / Lot 1029

LOT 1029

A Chinese famille rose porcelain bowl, early 20th century, the exterior painted with a fenghuang (phoenix) and peony, the pink ground rims filled with polychrome lotus and Buddhistic emblems, red printed four-character mark to base, height 8.5cm, diameter 20.1cm, together with a Chinese famille rose millefleurs bowl, cover and stand, 20th century, iron red marks to two pieces, total height 9.3cm.

Estimate: £50 - £100

---

Condition Report

1029. Bowl - generally good condition. There are a few very minor nibbles/tiny chips to tips of the shaped rim, otherwise no cracks or restoration. Good vibrant enamels and clear mark to base.

Bowl, cover and stand - all in good condition with no chips, cracks or repairs. Some minor wear to painting on the rim and typical light wear to enamels, which are good and vibrant.

Created: Wed, 2nd October 2019 11:36