LOT 1036

Two Chinese school trade watercolour paintings on paper, early 19th century, one depicting a stork-billed kingfisher perched on a blossoming branch, the other depicting a pair of swallows on a willow branch above pink prunus, both signed, 31.5cm x 38cm, framed and glazed.

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

1036. Both in generally good condition with good vibrant colours.

Swallows - paper slightly rippled in places and a few spots of discolouration.

Kingfisher - slight discolouration/staining to paper and numerous small spots across the image. These spots can be seen in the image on our website, which can be enlarged as required.
