

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 10th October 2019 / Lot 1150

LOT 1150

A Chinese famille rose porcelain saucer dish, mark of Qianlong but late Qing dynasty, the interior finely enamelled with a pair of peacocks perched upon rocks, beneath a blossoming prunus branch and surrounded by chrysanthemums and peonies, the prunus branch continuing on to the underside with two magpies and two butterflies, iron red enamelled six-character mark to base, diameter 16.9cm.

Estimate: £150 - £250

Condition Report

1150. Good clean condition. Very minor scuff to glaze on rim, but no chips, cracks or repairs. Good vibrant enamels. Provenance: good local private estate.

Created: Wed, 2nd October 2019 12:30