LOT 1099

A Chinese famille noire enameled biscuit porcelain jar and cover, late Qing dynasty, the baluster body decorated in relief with crane, lotus and millet on a black ground, moulded seal mark to base, height 27.5cm (minor restoration to cover and some flaking to black enamel).

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

1099. The rim of the cover has been restored with overpainting covering approx 8.5cm x 3cm, otherwise cover appears to be in good order.

The jar is essentially in good condition with no significant damage or repairs. There are a few very minor chips to high points of moulding and the black enamelled ground is flaking in numerous places from top to bottom.
