LOT 1030

A Chinese famille verte porcelain circular dish, late 19th century, painted with a scene of an emperor on horseback, warriors and banner carriers within a trellis rim framing four lotus vignettes, diameter 46.5cm.

Estimate: £400 - £600

Condition Report

1030. Overall dish is in excellent condition with no chips, cracks or repairs and very good vibrant enamels. The only minor issue is a small section of glaze fritting/flaking to gilt rim at 7 o'clock, this is 4cm in length.
