LOT 1275

A Chinese famille rose porcelain tea bowl, mark of Tongzhi and probably of the period, of slightly flared tapering form, the exterior finely painted with a continuous scene of the eight immortals in a garden setting, iron red enamelled six-character mark to base, height 5.8cm.

Estimate: £100 - £200

Condition Report

1275. Very good clean condition, no chips, cracks or repairs. Typical very minor wear to gilt and enamels, visible under magnification but nothing of any real significance. Good vibrant enamels.
