

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 10th October 2019 / Lot 1441

LOT 1441

A Thuringian Katzhutte porcelain figure group, first half 20th century, white glazed with blue enamelled and gilded detail, modelled as a musician dancing with a lady, a chicken at their feet, raised on an oval base, black printed factory mark to base, height 36cm, together with an Art Nouveau Volkstedt porcelain figure group, modelled as a kneeling gentleman kissing the hand of a maiden, height 28cm (restoration).

Estimate: £70 - £100

Condition Report

1441. Musician & lady - in good condition overall, no chips, cracks or repairs.

Art Nouveau Group - professional restoration to one main leaf of top and stem and part of centre top, similar professional restoration to part of scrollwork on base and to right little finger of maiden, with some other tips of leaves/flowers touched up. Overall this is very well executed and not really noticeable unless you know what you are looking for.

Created: Thu, 3rd October 2019 10:47