

Jewellery / Wed, 9th October 2019 / Lot 630

LOT 630

A French gold, sapphire and diamond seven stone bar brooch of curved serpentine form, claw set with three cushion shaped diamonds alternating with four cushion shaped sapphires, fitted with a safety chain, length 5cm, with a case.

Estimate: £2,000 - £3,000

---

Condition Report

630. The sapphires have some variation of colour. The two larger sapphires are darker than the sapphires at either end. The diamonds are old cut stones and have a few internal inclusions. The claws are generally in good condition. Suggested age ◆ circa 1910.

Diamond Colour: approx K, Clarity: I1/2, approx diamond weight of central stone ◆ 0.80-0.90ct, approx diamond weight of each side stone ◆ 0.50ct

Weight 8.7g.

Created: Thu, 3rd October 2019 16:08