

Objects of Virtu / Friday, 11th October 2019 / Lot 2492

LOT 2492

An early Victorian gold-cased and bloodstone pendant fob seal, the mount with pierced trefoil above a band of lion masks, the matrix initial engraved, length 3.2cm, together with two small gold-cased fob seals and a pocket watch key, all joined by three slip rings.

Estimate: £300 - £500

Condition Report

2492. The small bloodstone matrix has a tiny nick to the edge and the other matrices have very minor scratches. Otherwise some light overall wear to the metal.

Created: Mon, 7th October 2019 14:48