

Objects of Virtu / Friday, 11th October 2019 / Lot 2456

LOT 2456

A group of nine late 19th century and early 20th century Austrian cold painted bronze novelty miniature figures of amusing animals, including two standing pigs holding their piglets, a fox dressed as a huntsman, a cat dressed as a fireman and a pug dog wearing a top hat, all beneath a glass display dome, diameter 15cm, with ebonized stand.

Estimate: £1,500 - £2,000

Condition Report

2456. None of the pieces appear to have maker's stamps or marks. They are all in similar general condition, with overall surface wear to the paint, mainly to high points, with no major breaks or repairs.

Created: Mon, 7th October 2019 15:00