

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 10th October 2019 / Lot 1014

LOT 1014

A Chinese doucai enamelled porcelain bowl, mark of Guangxu and possibly of the period, the exterior decorated with lotus flowers and scrolling tendrils, heightened in gilt, the interior with a lotus flowerhead and tendril roundel beneath a trellis band to rim, underglaze blue six-character mark to base, height 7.5cm, diameter 16.5cm (minor rim chips).

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

1014. Three minor chips to rim and a 2cm hairline running vertically down from one of these chips. Otherwise good condition with minor wear to enamels and gilt.

Created: Tue, 8th October 2019 09:32