

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 10th October 2019 / Lot 1050

LOT 1050

A set of six Chinese blue and white Kraak porcelain saucer dishes, Wanli period, each painted with a central hexagonal medallion filled with scenes of deer, grasshopper, goose, pheasant and another bird, beneath a moulded rim, diameters 20cm to 20.5cm (two with minor rim hairlines and typical minor glaze fritting to rims).

Estimate: £600 - £1,000

Condition Report

1050. Dish 1 (two deer) - 3cm firing crack to rim and typical minor rim fritting. Otherwise good condition.

Dish 2 (bird on rock) - 2.3cm hairline to rim and typical minor rim fritting. Otherwise ok.

Dish 3 (ducks) - minor rim fritting to glaze. Otherwise good condition, no chips, cracks or repairs.

Dish 4 (grasshopper) - typical minor rim fritting to glaze. Otherwise good condition, no chips, cracks or repairs.

Dish 5 (two deer) - 2cm faint hairline to rim and typical minor rim fritting to glaze. Otherwise good condition.

Dish 6 (bird on rock) - 3cm hairline to rim and typical minor rim fritting. Otherwise in good condition.

Created: Tue, 8th October 2019 09:51