

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 10th October 2019 / Lot 1160

LOT 1160

A Chinese Canton famille rose celadon ground porcelain vase, mid-19th century, of shouldered tapering form with flared neck, painted with three figural panels opposing blue and white mythical scenes against a ground of flowers and butterflies, height 60cm (damaged and rivet repaired).

Estimate: £50 - £100

---

Condition Report

1160. The neck is damaged and re-glued with further cracks running down into the body of the vase, with rivet repairs. The longest crack running approx 3/4 of the way down. Minor chip losses along breaks. Enamels and gilt are bright. Some wear to enamels and gilt.

Created: Tue, 8th October 2019 10:23