LOT 1104

A Chinese lacquer box and cover, late Qing dynasty, of flower petal outline, decorated in black, gilt and red with shou medallions, fruit and flowers, on a gilt speckled iron red/brown ground, height 10.4cm, together with an Indian gilt lacquered brass bowl, probably Kashmiri, late 19th century, of oval form with shaped rim, the exterior painted with kingfishers and flowers, height 11.2cm (some faults).

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

1104. Box and cover - cracks and chips to cover and rim. Base also with some chips and minor repairs. Both with wear to decoration.

Indian bowl - some hairlines and minor losses to gilt ground decoration and typical surface wear and scratches, but otherwise fairly sound condition.
