LOT 1189

A Chinese doucai porcelain rectangular plaque, probably 20th century, outlined in underglaze blue with a design of lotus and scrolling tendrils, picked out in polychrome enamels, within a blue and green keyfret border, 57cm x 20.5cm, framed.

Estimate: £300 - £400

Condition Report

1189. Appears to be in generally good condition with no significant damage or repairs. The porcelain does have what looks like a partial covering of a pale brown liquid/spillage on some of it. It does not remove easily and it may have been put on the porcelain to possibly make it look older.
