

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 10th October 2019 / Lot 1206

LOT 1206

A Chinese pale blue silk embroidered winter jacket, early 20th century, worked in coloured threads with bands of butterflies and flowers on a cream ground within a border of green eternal knot motifs, length 91cm (re-lined and some faults).

Estimate: £250 - £350

---

Condition Report

1206. Re-lined and padded. Pale blue silk has some light staining, fading and discolouration in places. The cream borders are worn and frayed. The eternal knots also worn and frayed with some losses. Black lace borders appear to be later additions. Colours are generally good but overall a little worn and tired.

Created: Tue, 8th October 2019 10:31