

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 10th October 2019 / Lot 1220

LOT 1220

A Chinese Qianjiangcai enamelled porcelain rectangular tray, probably late Qing dynasty, painted with a landscape of a figure standing at a cliff edge looking out on to a lake as a boat approaches, with mountains and trees beyond, black painted text and two red seals bearing mark of Jin Pinqing above, length 38.8cm, width 23.7cm (chip to rim).

Estimate: £2,000 - £3,000

---

Condition Report

1220. There are a few small chips to rim and a small hairline to lower left corner. Some typical glaze scuffs to rim. Fewer minor spots of re-touching to paintwork in the centre of the image, otherwise painting is good and panel in generally good condition with no significant damage or repairs.

Created: Tue, 8th October 2019 10:32