

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 10th October 2019 / Lot 1274

LOT 1274

A Khorasan brass ewer, the lobed body and flared neck engraved with foliate and script panels within copper inlaid borders, height 31cm (repaired).

Estimate: £100 - £200

---

Condition Report

1274. Repair to top of handle where it meets the neck. Also a solder repair where lower section of handle meets the body. To the right of this repair there is a horizontal tear/split which has been repaired. This runs for approx 2/3 of the way round the body. Also wear to surface.

Created: Tue, 8th October 2019 12:29