

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 10th October 2019 / Lot 1228

LOT 1228

A Kashmiri gilt copper and enamelled tea caddy and cover, late 19th century, of ovoid form, decorated in relief with bands of foliate panels against turquoise and blue enamel grounds, height 14.5cm (minor faults).

Estimate: £50 - £80

---

Condition Report

1228. Misshaping to foot where it has been dented. Slight misshaping to rim. Body and cover in generally sound order with typical surface wear and scratches. Enamel in generally good order with typical minor losses and wear.

Created: Tue, 8th October 2019 12:50