

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 10th October 2019 / Lot 1001

LOT 1001

Two Japanese Komai style damascened iron boxes by The Fuji Damascene Co Ltd Tokyo, Taisho period, the first in the form of a ko-karabitsu chest, the hinge lid decorated with dense flowers, height 4.2cm, the second of rectangular form with hinged lid decorated with a cockerel and flowers, length 9.2cm, each with Fuji maker's mark and detailed 'K24 Gold' to bases.

Estimate: £100 - £200

Condition Report

1001. Square box - generally good condition. Typical light wear, but nothing significant and no repairs. Lid closes nice and tight and hinge is good.

Created: Wed, 9th October 2019 14:41