

Glassware / Thu, 10th October 2019 / Lot 1619

LOT 1619

Two engraved glass rummers, early 19th century, the first of U-shape, engraved with hops and barley to the rim above elongated oval facets, on a short shoulder knopped waisted stem and star cut foot, height 14.5cm, the second with faceted U-shaped bowl, engraved with hops and barley above a diamond faceted band, on a waisted faceted stem and square foot, height 14cm.

Estimate: £120 - £180

Condition Report

1619. Engraved and cut rummer - few very minor chips to outside of rim, but no significant damage or repairs. Foot has some minor chips to bottom corners, otherwise glass in generally good order.

Engraved and basal fluted rummer - good condition, few tiny chips to corners of the square foot.

Created: Wed, 9th October 2019 14:49