

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 10th October 2019 / Lot 1511

LOT 1511

A Royal Worcester porcelain rectangular pin dish, circa 1941, painted by K. Blake, signed, with blackberry fruit and blossom, puce printed factory mark, length 11.5cm, together with four other pieces of Royal Worcester, comprising two patch boxes and covers, one signed by Powell, and two diminutive mugs.

Estimate: £70 - £100

---

Condition Report

1511. Dish - in good condition, no chips, cracks or repairs.

Mug pink flowers - faint hairline to interior, overall crazing.

Mug blue flowers - overall crazing and some staining.

Powell patch box - small chip to interior rim of cover and very minor surface wear to painted decoration.

Floral patch box - overall crazing, rubbing to gilt to box rim.

Created: Wed, 9th October 2019 15:50