

Furniture / Friday, 11th October 2019 / Lot 2049

LOT 2049

An 18th century oak dresser, later profusely carved with masks and scrolls, fitted with three drawers above cupboards, on block legs, height 142cm, width 149cm, depth 50cm (alterations).

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

2049. The base is essentially an old late 18th century dresser base which has then been carved in the Victorian period. The gallery back is also Victorian. The drawers are a bit worn and do not sit in their runners very well. There is a split down the central panel and the hinges and handles are later. There are other typical splits and wear.

Created: Fri, 11th October 2019 09:45