LOT 2481

An early 20th century Continental purple enamel and silver bell pull finial, length 7cm, another similar blue enamelled finial and an enamelled egg-shaped pendant container.

Estimate: £60 - £100

Condition Report

2481. Purple enamel example - few very minor dinks to the edges, but the enamel is ok. The hardstone finial appears to have been re-attached or possibly added later with slight glue residue.

Blue example - only some minor surface wear.

Egg pendant - some overall surface scuffs and some damage to the enamel edge near the hinge, also some glue residue around the enamelled area of hinge.
