

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 7th November 2019 / Lot 1446

LOT 1446

A Doulton Lambeth stoneware ewer with plated cover, circa 1880, decorated by Elizabeth Fisher, monogrammed, with foliate roundels and beaded and foliate borders, flanked by a handle with bird head surmounts, impressed and incised marks to base, height 29cm.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

1446. Some professional restoration and clear spraying to head feathers of one bird head on handle. Plated mounts rubbed and plated thumbpiece a little misshapen. Otherwise ok.

Created: Thu, 31st October 2019 12:37