

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 7th November 2019 / Lot 1456

LOT 1456

A Charles Vyse pottery figure of The Lavender Girl, circa 1920, modelled standing, holding a basket of lavender, blue painted 'CV' monogram and dated 1920 to base, height 22cm (some faults).

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

1456. Heavily crazed with significant glaze loss to edge of base and spot to front of dress above middle of apron. Right hand detached at wrist (available with the Lot) with signs of old botched repair and associated glued repair to lower right arm.

Created: Thu, 31st October 2019 12:40