LOT 325

A George III silver two-handled oval tea tray, the centre engraved with a shield crest within a reeded rim, flanked by a pair of similarly decorated handles, London 1794 by William Frisbee, length 54.5cm.

Estimate: £700 - £1,000

Condition Report

325. Total weight 1651g.

Generally fairly good condition. There are a few small dents to surface and small dent to edge of surface where it meets the rim. Otherwise typical minor nicks, surface scratches and wear commensurate with age. Small repair to tear on rim next to one handle. Slightly misshapen so does not sit perfectly flat. Good clear hallmarks.
