LOT 2007

A mid-19th century yew and elm Windsor armchair, the pierced splat and spindle back above a solid seat, on turned legs united by a crinoline stretcher, height 105cm, width 54cm.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

2007. Some minor cracks and one small area of filler to the hoop back. Both flattened handrests are also cracked but all fairly natural and not causing too much structural damage. There are some minor cracks through the legs and the front of the crinoline stretcher is a later replacement.
