

Silver and Plate / Wed, 6th November 2019 / Lot 450

LOT 450

A William III Britannia silver bleeding bowl of circular form, the flat tab handle with pierced scroll decoration and engraved with a crest, London 1698, maker's mark SM, length 20.5cm.

Estimate: £1,000 - £1,500

---

Condition Report

450. There is a dent and small repair to the front of the bowl in the centre of the engraved armorial, where it has obviously had a knock. Otherwise the bowl has some typical light surface scratches, wear and a few very minor dents. Handle in generally good order with typical light wear and scratches. Good clear marks to rim and part mark to underside of handle. Weight 248.8g.

Created: Mon, 4th November 2019 15:18