

Jewellery / Wed, 6th November 2019 / Lot 556

LOT 556

An emerald and diamond ring in an elongated hexagonal design, mounted with a rectangular emerald and two principal circular cut diamonds, otherwise mounted with rose cut diamonds, ring size approx M1/2, with a case.

Estimate: £1,000 - £1,500

Condition Report

556. The ring is in generally good condition. The ring is Art Deco in style but later in date. It is an attractive looking ring with bright, white sparkly diamonds. The emerald is a fairly pale colour and under magnification is typically included.

Created: Mon, 4th November 2019 11:17