

Glassware / Thu, 7th November 2019 / Lot 1610

LOT 1610

A Jacobite wine glass, mid-18th century, the gentle bell bowl engraved with a rose stem with a flower in bloom, two buds and four leaves opposing a star, raised on a plain multi-series airtwist stem and conical foot, height 15.7cm.

Estimate: £500 - £700

Condition Report

1610. The foot is a good size in relation to the bowl, but is likely to have been slightly reduced due to uneven wear. Some very minor scratches to bowl.

Created: Mon, 4th November 2019 11:23