

Glassware / Thu, 7th November 2019 / Lot 1618

LOT 1618

An engraved Stourbridge glass decanter and stopper, possibly Stevens & Williams, late 19th/early 20th century, the ovoid body finely engraved with a continuous scene of two herons amidst flowers and foliage, the octagonally faceted neck with banded horizontal detail, the blown stopper with engraved foliate decoration, height 31cm.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

1618. Couple of pinhead sized nibbles to end of stopper, tiny bruise to the top, very minor surface scratches to body, otherwise ok.

Created: Mon, 4th November 2019 11:27